
For the month of January, 2020:

On 31/01/2020, Dr. Rupam Saikia, Chairperson of Centre for Judicial studies & Director of College Development Council, Dibrugarh University delivered a lecture on fundamental rights of the Constitution at the Conference room of the institute which was attended by the staff members including the project staff of the institute.
For the month of February, 2020 (1st Programme):

Under the banner of “Celebration of Constitution Day” (26 Nov-14 Apr) 2020, an awareness programme on Japanese encephalitis (JE) was held in association with Ekayan, a social group under the Centre for Social Work Studies, Dibrugarh University at Anganwadi kendra, Binoygutia village under Borborua PHC, Dibrugarh, Assam on Feb 3rd, 2020. In the day long program, a lecture on JE awareness (causes, role of environment, control measures, etc.) was delivered by Dr Siraj A. Khan, Scientist F and Head, Medical Entomology, Arboviral and Rickettsial Diseases Division, ICMR, RMRC Dibrugarh. A street play on the same topic was enacted by Team Ekayan. Health workers, local people, women organisations, religious groups and school students attended the programme and took active part in discussion and question and answer session relation to JE and its prevention and control.
29/02/2020 (February, 2020: 2nd Programme):

A seminar on "Citizen's duty and other Constitutional issues" was organized on 29th of February, 2020 in the Polytechnic institute, Dibrugarh. Advocate Satyabrata Sarma, General Secretary of Dibrugarh Bar Association, Vice President of All Assam Lawyers' Association & Sr. Lecturer of RKB Law College, Dibrugarh delivered a speech on the occasion. The seminar was attended by the Principal, Faculty members, Staff and Students of the institute.